

A TIME TO BE QUIET

Here is a story all about you and two friends, Harold and Dibna. Draw yourself in the pictures. Put your name on the dotted lines. Cut out the pictures and stick them in the right places. Talk about how you help your friends in this story. Colour in the pictures if you want to.

P The correct name can go in the boxes so that your child can be part of this story. Help your child cut out the pictures and stick them in the appropriate spaces. Talk about times when it's ok to be noisy and times when it's helpful to be quiet.

1 Poor Harold isn't feeling well.
Dibna is dancing and shouting.

2 ..... tells Dibna to be very quiet.

3 Harold has a sleep. .... and Dibna quietly look at books and do some drawing.

4 When Harold wakes up he feels better. 'Thank you for being quiet, Dibna and

.....',

5 Hooray! Now they can all play together in the garden.

